April is Stress Awareness Month

Reports Due? Exams coming up? Worried about what to do after graduation or over the summer? Dealing with all of this and family/friend issues too? Too much stress can be harmful to your health.

How much do you know about the signs of stress or how to reduce it? Take a quiz from the American Psychological Association to find out.

Possible signs of stress

- Anxiety
- Back pain
- Constipation or diarrhea
- Depression
- Fatigue
- Headaches
- High blood pressure
- Insomnia
• Problems with relationships
• Shortness of breath
• Stiff neck
• Upset stomach
• Weight gain or loss

Tips for dealing with stress

• Don’t worry about things you can't control, such as the weather.
• Prepare to the best of your ability for events you know may be stressful, such as an exam or a job interview.
• Try to look at change as a positive challenge, not as a threat.
• Work to resolve conflicts with other people.
• Talk with a trusted friend, family member or counselor.
• Set realistic goals at home and at work.
• Exercise on a regular basis.
• Eat well-balanced meals and get enough sleep.
• Meditate.
• Participate in something you don't find stressful, such as sports, social events or hobbies.

(From the American Academy of Family Physicians)

Other information:

• National Mental Health Information Center
  Mental Health Topics
  http://mentalhealth.samhsa.gov/topics/explore/stress/
  Information and publications about stress and anxiety.

• The National Women's Health Information Center
  http://www.womenshealth.gov/faq/stress.htm
  Stress and Your Health
• National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) Stress at Work
  http://www.cdc.gov/niosh/topics/stress/
  Publications and reports from NIOSH.

• Emergency Mental Health and Traumatic Stress
  http://mentalhealth.samhsa.gov/cmhs/EmergencyServices/after.asp
  Tips for Talking About Disasters

• National Center for Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)
  http://www.ncptsd.va.gov/ncmain/index.jsp
  PSTD resources from the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Visit our Stress Awareness exhibit in the Government Documents Department on the second floor of Dacus Library. Government Documents included in the exhibit can be checked out.

For further information, contact:

Jackie McFadden
323-2322
mcfaddenn@winthrop.edu

Patti Stafford
323-2257
staffordp@winthrop.edu